I. Call to order

II. Budget Update

Chairman Roddey asked the Finance Director to give Council an update. Mr. Baker stated he had done some research and if the County went to State Insurance we would save over a million dollars. Council Member Oliphant asked if we went to the State insurance plan would Gasby be affected and Mr. Baker replied "hopefully not". Council Member Jordan asked if we went to the State Insurance does it drop back on retirees and Mr. Baker replied we wouldn't have to pay life, dental, vision or HRA on spouses. Chairman Roddey then said the deductible is lower and the employees have choices. Council Member

Holcombe said he thought it was a better plan. Council Member Oliphant asked when the new insurance would take place and Chairman Roddey said August 1, 2011.

Chairman Roddey also stated that all “frills” had been cut and unfortunately employees were going without a raise for the 4th year.

No further business was discussed.
